URGE KEMP TRIAL AT AN EARLY DATE

Assistant District Attorney Turner Opposes Further Postponement of the Case.

Assistant District Attorney Turner today vigorously opposed further post-ponement of the trial of J. Arthur Kemp, formerly property clerk of the Police Department, who was indicted on a charge of embezzlement and larceny. In a certificate signed by Coroner Nevitt and filed by counsel for Kemp, the Coroner says that he has had Kemp Coroner finds that Kemp is suffering from neurosthenia, insomnia, mental instability, which takes the form of melancholia and catarrh of the stomach. He has lost thirty-five or forty pounds in weight.

he has lost thirty-live of forty pounds in weight.

Assistant District Attorney Turner argued before Judge Barnard that the trial has already been postponed many times, and that the District Attorney does not feel that the request of Kamp's counsel to put the trial over until next fall should be granted. He said that the Government would have an examination made of Kemp's physical condition, and asked that the trial be set for June 3. Justice Barnard declined to set a date stating that he would wait until the Government report was filed.

Girl Tries Suicide in Cell. In Effort to Escape Prison

Faced Three-Year Term, After Conviction for Shooting Lawyer.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Jennie Blunt, who was to have gone to Auburn prison for three years today, for shooting Charles M. Sanford, the rich Brooklyn lawyer, probably will succumb to the effects of gas, inhaled in her cell in the Raymond street jail in an attempt to Though the young woman went into violent hysterics and finally fell fainting when sentenced in the Brooklyn county court yesterday, she seemed comparatively cheerful at the time Matron McCormick passed her cell toward morning.

About 6 o'clock, however, the matron noticed the odor of gas, and, on investigating, found her ward unconscious, but still gripping between her teeth a rubber gas tube connected with the jet

Dr. Morgenthaler partially revived her, and had her removed to the Brook-lyn Hospital, where her chance for re-

AWAKE TWO MONTHS, GIRL FALLS ASLEEP

DES MOINES, May 19 .- Miss Esther Chinberg, of Odebolt, a student at Simpson College, at Indianola, Iowa, closed the first time in two months. Beginning sixty days ago to prepare for her final black coffee and resorted to other means to her horror, that she was suffering from an aggravated case of insomnia. It was not until physicians had worked over the girl for weeks that she yielded to treatment and Thursday night slept for a short time. Next night she slept somewhat better, and Saturday she had a good night's rest. Another week of the terrible strain, and she would have gone mad, the ductors say.

Miss Chinberg ranked near the top of her class, and was taking an unusually heavy course the entire year.
